him of the people who call themselves the Once-Apples, the Once-Lorax and his companions. He then explains to the Lorax why he is willing to give up his home and life, along with giving him the advice he needs to live. When the Once-ler tells the Lorax about the plight of the Once-Lorax, the Lorax decides that they should stop the destruction that is caused by the Once-Apples and find a way to make the Once-Apples disappear. The Once-ler, without having any power or knowledge, is not sure what to do, but decides that they should try to stop the Once-Apples. He then goes back to the Lorax and tells him of their plan to stop the Once-Apples. The Once-Apples are then sent out to hunt down the Once-lorax, since they have plans for the small creature. However, the Once-lorax has already begun the journey to the Once-Apples' home. The Once-ler goes to the Once-Apples' home to warn them of the Lorax's coming. He says that the Once-Apples do not need to worry about 82157476af
